

Civica Mobilitas

Civica Mobilitas encourages the development of a vibrant civil society in North Macedonia, contributing to positive social change in the country through research, networking, and grant funding. In part as a result of the growing civil society sector, mass protests in 2017 led to a change of government, a huge success for democracy.

Marginalised communities are often subjected to discrimination and daily rights violations. Grant beneficiary Coalition MARGINS is a nonprofit organisation advocating on behalf of the LGBT/MSM, HIV/AIDS, sex worker, drug user, and marginalised women communities. By supporting legal, institutional, and societal change, they seek to make Macedonia more inclusive for all.
